When planning a vacation, many people seek diversity in activities and scenery plus a chance to break away from their normal schedule. Tennessee's Fall Creek Falls State Resort Park provides a multitude of options that are sure to please the most discerning guest.

With a list of credentials including recognition as one of the nation's best state parks, a highly awarded golf course and dramatic scenery centered on the highest waterfall east of the Mississippi River, this Tennessee jewel offers a destination that can be as excitement-filled or as relaxing as a guest desires. Southern Living Magazine readers voted Fall Creek Falls one of the five best state parks in the Southeastern United States and Golf Digest magazine tabbed the golf course one of the "100 Best Public Places To Play."

This paradise of more than 20,000 acres, sprawled across the eastern top of the rugged Cumberland Plateau, is one of the most scenic and spectacular outdoor recreation areas in America. Laced with cascades, gorges, waterfalls, sparkling streams, and lush stands of virgin hardwood timber, the park beckons those who enjoy nature at its finest. While Fall Creek Falls, at 256 feet, is the highlight of the park, Piney and Cane Creek Falls and Cane Creek Cascades charm visitors as well.
